Cambridge Global Food Security Symposium 2019: Generating Practical Solutions for India and Africa

DAY 1: MONDAY 8th April, 2019

Registration and Coffee

Opening Address

THEME 1: Greenhouse gas emissions and sustainable agriculture

Chair: Dr Alison Bentley, Head of Genetics and Breeding, NIAB

The environmental impacts of food

Professor Pete Smith, Chair in Plant & Soil Science, University of Aberdeen

Rice in India: environment, economy and society; mashing/meshing disciplines

Professor Barbara Harriss-White, Professor Emeritus of Development Studies, University of Oxford

title tbc

Professor Howard Griffiths, Physiological Ecology, University of Cambridge

Panel discussion with Q&A

Coffee and Networking

THEME 2: Food supply chains and trade

Chair: tbc

Title tbc

Professor Amrita Narlikar, President, GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies & International Relations, Universität Hamburg

Evaluating the impact of digital technologies on future food supply chains – implications for developed and developing markets.

Dr Jagjit Srai, Head, Centre for International Manufacturing, University of Cambridge

The role of farmer-producer organisations in developing socially responsible supply networks

Dr Tomas Harrington, Senior Lecturer, Norwich Business School, University of East Anglia

Panel discussion with Q&A

Lunch and posters

Three-minute flash presentations by Early Career Researchers
THEME 3: Gender, nutrition and policy

Chair: Dr Rob Doubleday, Executive Director, Cambridge Centre for Science and Policy

Dr Agnes Kalibata, President, Alliance for a Green Revolution in Africa (AGRA)

Gender justice, women’s agricultural work and nutrition security in South Asia
Professor Nitya Rao, Gender and Development, University of East Anglia

tbc

Panel discussion with Q&A

Drinks reception, Clare College Fellows’ Garden

DAY 2: TUESDAY 9th April, 2019

Workshop A: an invitation-only workshop that is intended to lead to a published paper summarising key elements for future focus.

Workshop B: an open workshop focused on generating pilot projects, the best of which will be awarded seed funding (early career researchers are encouraged).